KATHRYN M^cAULEY YUKICH

Kathy Yukich has been a dedicated volunteer at the Ermatinger Clergue National Historic Site for over 30 years and is past president of the Historic Sites Board. Kathy was instrumental in the capital construction project of the Heritage Discovery Centre opening in 2014. Previous projects included restoration of the Ermatinger Old Stone House, Summer Kitchen, relocation and restoration of the Clergue Blockhouse and the landscape plan for the heritage grounds.

Kathy's contributions have allowed the community to witness innovative, creative and outstanding support designing and interpreting our local Canadian Heritage with National significance, while preserving the historic integrity of our sites. Her talents of working with the Cultural Corridor, 4 Culture, Arts Community, Tourism Partners and Downtown Association are immeasurable.
