

2008 INDUCTEE

TOM COULTERMAN CURLING COACH

Tom Coulterman has dedicated his life to the development of curling in the city of Sault Ste. Marie, the province of Ontario, in Canada, as well as in Europe. His commitment to the sport of curling is evident in the successes of all who have had the pleasure of being coached by him. His career's accomplishments are both plentiful and admirable. He has had the pleasure of coaching numerous city, NOSSA and OFSSA champions. In 1992, Tom coached the women's bantam curling team to a silver medal standing at the Canadian Curling Championship. Between 1996 and 2008, Tom was the national coach and team leader for the Canadian Junior Men's Curling team at the World Junior Championship. In those exciting years, Tom and his teams won an impressive 8 gold medal and 2 bronze medals for their extraordinary efforts. But of all these accomplishments, if you were to ask Tom what the highlight of his coaching career was, he would say it was coaching his daughter Tara to a silver medal at the Canadian Junior Women's Curling Championship.

His accomplishments include:

- Canadian Curling Association Coach
- Canadian Men's Junior Champions at the World Tournament for over the last twelve years to present winning seven Gold Medals
- 2006/07 Ontario Champion, Scott Tournament of Hearts
- 1992 Silver Medal, Canadian Junior Women's Curling Championship
- Facilitated, at the Canadian and International Level, "high performance" Training Camps across Canada and Europe
- 1980 O.F.F.S.A. Women's Curling Champions