Municipal Heritage Committee 2020 Heritage Award Algoma Conservatory of Music

In recognition of the Algoma Conservatory of Music and their contributions to the preservation and restoration of 75 Huron Street. Guy Traficante and the Algoma Conservatory of Music have worked hard to highlight and preserve the original character the of building.

The sandstone building was built at the turn of the century by Francis H. Clergue has been thoughtfully restored and repurposed to highlight many of the original features and characteristics. The recent restoration of the loft on the third floor provides a stunning place to showcase the original architecture and details of this heritage building.
