Municipal Heritage Committee 2018 Heritage Award

Jean-Marie Wissell &
Christine Viens

Jean-Marie and Christine have dedicated their efforts to enhancing the cultural history of the French Canadian community as well as the First Nations community. They are members of the executive in the Ermatinger Clergue National Historic Site, assisting in preserving and highlighting one of the founding establishments.

They participated in the re-enactment events at the Fort St. Joseph National Historic Site and were involved in the Richards Landing and Hilton Beach parades. Their intense involvement with a variety of historic groups, demonstrates the heritage of the French and First Nations communities and ensure it is preserved and highlighted within the community.

They are both members of the executive of CÉFA and assist in the education of French language to the adults in the community.
